[1] Figures relate to sales by manufacturers in the United Kingdom employing 25 or more persons. [2] Figures of dyestuffs and pigments in 1973 are for April to December only. [3] The figures are based on returns received from manufacturers employing 25 or more persons. A new sales inquiry was introduced at the beginning of 1971 and, although the coverage was not significantly different, figures prior to 1971 are not strictly comparable. [4] Including oil and/or synthetic based non-aqueous products, marine paints, bituminous paints and paste fillers. [5] Removers and strippers are included from 1971 to 1974 only. [6] Figures prior to 1975 include sealants (oil-based, preformed bituminous strips).

[1] Figures relate to total production i.e. 'captive use' is included. [2] Except for Ethyl alcohol which is measured in million proof gallons. [3] Produced from oil base, other than for use as fuel. [4] Includes production obtained by dealkylation of toluene (excludes production from coal). [5] Includes that used for the production of benzene, but excludes production from coal. [6] Including paraformaldehyde (expressed as 100 per cent formaldehyde). [7] Industrial alcohol made from molasses and derived from other processes. The figures include a small quantity of beverage spirits produced by rectification of spirits distilled from molasses. In the financial year ended 31 March 1979 this amounted to about 0.57 million proof gallons a month.

[1] Unless separately specified, all figures are in terms of net resin content and co-polymers are recorded against the heading for resins made from the major monomeric ingredient of the co-polymer. [2] A new enquiry was introduced at the end of 1972 and the figures from 1973 onwards are not comparable with those for previous years. [3] Figures from 1973 onwards include production of polymers and co-polymers of polyamide and polyester by firms classified to man-made fibre industry. [4] Figures up to 1976 are not available on the same basis as those for later years.

[1] From July 1971 new enquiries were introduced for these commodities and figures for the second half of the year were not comparable with previous years and the first six months of 1971. Figures for 1971 have been estimated on the old enquiry basis. [2] For household, domestic and industrial (including laundries) purposes. Figures relate to deliveries by manufacturers employing 25 or more persons. [3] Including soft soap, liquid soap, lathering shaving soap and cream and soap shampoos. [4] Deliveries by manufacturers employing 25 or more persons. Including products for cleaning floors, paintwork, metal, wood or synthetic surfaces which may contain phosphates or silica in suspension, shampoos for carpets and furnishing fabrics and soap or synthetic based scouring powders. Sanitary cleansers are excluded. [5] Excluding wetters, disinfectants, spreaders and emulsifiers, abrasive and scouring preparations containing synthetic detergents. Sales by larger manufacturers in the United Kingdom, free of double counting of materials at different stages of manufacture, expressed in terms of weight of product as sold. [6] Excluding export figures for liquid, paste or other forms, from 1972-75. [7] Figures relate to firms employing 25 or more persons. [8] Including pre-cleaners. [9] Sales by firms employing 25 or more persons. Including sweeping powders and compositions.

TIME SERIES. The figures relate to periods of 52 weeks for insulation board, etc.

[1] The figures are summaries of returns made by manufacturers and producers. They represent total production and not merely the quantities available for building purposes. [2] From 1975 figures include additional sites. The change has had the following effects: Building bricks production increased by 1%; metal windows production increased by 14.0%; concrete building blocks production increased by an average of 11.0%, manufactured lightweight aggregate 24% and concrete roofing tiles production increased by less than 1%. [3] United Kingdom. [4] Including sand used in the production of sand lime bricks. [5] From 1975 the figures relate to production resulting from the Annual Minerals Revised Inquiries. These include additional sites not covered by the quarterly inquiries on which data prior to 1975 is based. [6] Figures include hoggin, irrespective of purpose. [7] Including Aglite, Foamed Slag, Leca, Lytag and Solite. [8] From April 1971 figures relate to manufacturers' sales by firms employing 25 or more persons. [9] From 1974 figures relate to manufacturers' sales by firms employing 11 or more persons. From 1975 figures relate to manufacturers' sales by firms employing 25 or more persons. [10] From 1976 roofing and damp proof courses have been rolled. [11] Including rainwater, hot water and soil pipes and gutters. [12] 1970 and 1975 were 53-week years. [13] Figures relate to the production of copper tubes for all purposes including those used in the construction industry. [14] Series discontinued. [15] 1978 figures are provisional.

[1] Figures for 1978 are provisional. [2] Figures from 1973 are not completely comparable with those for earlier years. [3] The values for 1971 are taken from the product series. [4] Excluding waste products, work done and unclassified sales in 1972 and 1973. [5] Including powered industrial trucks. [6] Excluding waste products, work done and unclassified sales from 1972 onwards. [7] Excluding ducting and parts from 1975 onwards. [8] Excluding process plant engineering contractors. [9] In 1977 some firms were reclassified from the construction industry (MLH 500) to the constructional steelwork industry (MLH 341.4). To allow for increased coverage in 1977 and elimination of misreporting in previous years sales of constructional steelwork in 1976 should be increased by 14 per cent and data for 1972-75 by 19 per cent to obtain a more consistent time series for 1972-77. [10] The value of work done had been added to total figures for each Minimum List Heading only. [11] Figures from 1972 onwards are not completely comparable with those for earlier years. [12] Including document copying machines and microfilm equipment, but excluding lenses, chemicals and sensitised materials. [13] Excluding turbines in 1971. [14] Figures for 1971 relate to production. [15] Excluding alarms and signalling equipment in 1971. [16] Including industrial water heaters in 1974 and 1975. [17] Including sales of imported goods in 1971. [18] Figures from 1974 exclude non-electric refrigerators. [19] Coverage was extended in 1968 by under 10 per cent and from 1970 onwards differs from previous years. [20] Including kettles and teapots, cookware, bakeware and other domestic metal hollow-ware.

[1] Includes naval vessels registered as merchant ships. [2] Gross tonnage (100 cubic feet per g.t.) is the total volume of the enclosed spaces of a vessel. [3] Vessels recorded for export if they are for other than UK registration. [4] Includes bulk carriers, container ships, coasters (300 gross tons and over), colliers, tramps, passenger liners and passenger/cargo liners. [5] Ferries, trawlers, tugs, dredgers and other miscellaneous self-propelled vessels. [6] The total tonnage specified on ordering vessels differs slightly from the total actual measured tonnage at completion. Figures with a minus sign show the effects of cancellations, alterations of tonnage and changes of registration of ships already on order. [7] Modifications and cancellations exceed new orders for the types and periods, indicated by a minus sign. [8] Tonnage switched during 1971 from UK to export registration exceeded total cancellations.

TIME SERIES. Figures for cars and commercial vehicles relate to periods of 52 weeks (53 weeks in 1976). All other figures relate to calendar years. [1] Deliveries. [2] Prior to 1972 tractors were classified by belt h.p. Tractors for agricultural and industrial use are included but those for road haulage are excluded. [3] Including taxis, and chassis delivered as such by manufacturers. [4] From 1977 land rover estate vehicles (1600cc—2800cc) are being recorded as other goods vehicles (not over 10 tons) rather than as passenger cars. The number of these vehicles in 1977 was 11,848. [5] Excluding battery-operated electric road vehicles. [6] That is vans derived from car chassis. The figures for 1972 and earlier relate to goods vehicles of not over 1½ tons gross vehicle weight. In practice, the coverage is almost the same. [7] The figures for 1972 and earlier relate to goods vehicles of over 1½ tons, not over 10 tons gross vehicle weight. [8] From 1972 onwards figures are based on the results of the new quarterly inquiry, which is more comprehensive in coverage. [9] Including detachable semi-trailers. [10] Deliveries. Including military aircraft for the Services. [11] Provisional.

IX. Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

Agricultural censuses and surveys (Tables 9.3–9.8)

Up to 1969, the figures for Great Britain relate to agricultural holdings exceeding 0.4 hectare (one acre) in extent, but in June, 1968, about 47,000 holdings were excluded from the census in England and Wales on the grounds that they were not statistically significant. In Scotland, 16,000 holdings were excluded on the same grounds with effect from June 1970.

Up to 1972, figures for Northern Ireland relate to holdings of 0.4 hectare (one acre) or more, except for numbers of livestock, which were collected from all owners, irrespective of the size of the holding, and also from landless stockholders. From June 1973, some 6,000 statistically insignificant holdings were excluded from the census.

The exclusion of these statistically insignificant holdings has not affected the cropping and stocking figures for the United Kingdom to any significant extent.

Between June 1969, and June 1970, some 10,000 holdings in England and Wales were 'statistically amalgamated'. These holdings, farmed with other holdings as part of a larger single farm unit, were formerly returned separately but are now returned as part of the larger unit.

The definition of agricultural holdings has been widened to include, as from June 1970, some 2,300 statistically significant holdings on 0.4 hectare (one acre) or less of agricultural land in Great Britain and, as from June 1973, about 2,000 statistically significant but landless stockholdings in Northern Ireland. The cropping and stocking figures returned by holdings on 0.4 hectare (one acre) or less in Great Britain account for significant differences between the June 1970, census results and those for previous years only in the case of pigs and fowls.

From June 1973, the threshold of significance in Great Britain was raised from 26 to 40 standard man-days (a standard man-day (smd) represents 8 hours productive work by an adult male worker under average conditions), excluding from the census a further 8,000 or so holdings on about 75,000 hectares of land, mostly permanent grass and rough grazing. The net result of this change, together with the elimination of 6,000 or so holdings in Northern Ireland, has been to exclude some 14,000 holdings on about 91,000 hectares of land in the United Kingdom.

The United Kingdom figures now relate to all known holdings with 40 smd or more; in England and Wales and Northern Ireland holdings with less than 40 smd are included only if they have 4 hectares or more of crops and grass or at least one regular whole-time worker.

Crops and grass exclude rough grazing.

Rough grazing (including common rough grazings) includes the total area of deer forest land in Scotland. The fall of 417,000 hectares between 1969 and 1970 is largely accounted for by exclusion from the census of the 16,000 holdings in Scotland referred to above.

Average weekly earnings of agricultural workers (Table 9.11)

Data on the earnings of agricultural workers have been collected since 1945 through a series of investigations known as the Wages and Employment Enquiry. Appointed officers of the Ministry of Agriculture Fisheries and Food, the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland and the Welsh Office Agricultural Department undertake this series of investigations in the course of their duties as Wages Inspectors. Under the Agricultural Wages Act 1948, these officers monitor minimum wages determined by the Agricultural Wages Board. They visit a random sample of farms each year (approximately 5,200) and collect information on workers earnings, hours, overtime, bonuses, perquisites, etc.; the analysed results of which are published in quarterly press notices and annual reports. Summary tables of earnings and hours are also published by the Department of Employment, the Welsh Office Agricultural Department and the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland. The enquiry also provides data used by the Agricultural Wages Board when considering wage claims and by the Ministry in estimating the cost of labour in agriculture for the Annual Review and similar purposes.

Fisheries (Tables 9.21–9.23)

Data relating to the weight and value of landings of fish in Great Britain (Table 9.21) is generally obtained from sales notes completed at fish market auctions.

Fishing fleet information (Tables 9.22 and 9.23) is obtained from vessel registers maintained by the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries in England and Wales and the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland.

[1] The figures relate to commercially significant holdings, which, broadly speaking, are holdings requiring 26 standard man-days or more per year where a standard man-day represents 8 hours' productive work by an adult male worker under average conditions. Output values include deficiency payments on products sold. [2] Forecast prepared in November 1978. [3] Includes receipts from crops sold off farms and subsequently bought back for feed or seed; excludes deficiency payments on retained cereals and compensation payments on unsold potatoes which are included under Sundry receipts. [4] Maize, mixed corn, rye, hay and dried grass, oilseed rape and other farm crops. [5] Flowers, bulbs and nursery stock, seeds and other minor products. [6] Breeding animals exported, poultry for stock and export, rabbits and game, knacker animals and other minor livestock. [7] Honey, goat milk, export of eggs for hatching and other minor livestock products. [8] Own account capital formation, timber, osiers, peat and turf. [9] Dividends from Agricultural Co-ops; other miscellaneous receipts. [10] Hill livestock, calf and beef cow subsidies and other non-capital production grants. [11] Closing level minus opening level, each valued at estimated cost. [12] Sales included in Output (see footnote [3]), but subsequently repurchased and so re-appearing as Input. [13] Cereals, potatoes, beans, hay and dried grass. [14] Electricity, veterinary expenses, pesticides, rates and other miscellaneous costs. [15] Feed (including retentions) and fertilisers. Opening stock minus closing stock. [16] Net rent represents landlords' agricultural net income from the ownership of agricultural land and buildings before any charges for interest or taxes. Gross rent is the sum of net rent and the landowner share of maintenance and of depreciation. The figures for gross rent corresponding to those for net rent in the columns of the above table, in £ million, were as follows: 1968 143: 1969 154: 1970 165: 1971 174: 1972 187: 1973 205: 1974 226: 1975 263: 1976 309: 1977 359: 1978 432. [17] On commercial debt for current farming purposes.

[1] See introductory notes on page 246. [2] Before 1977 fodder beet was included with turnips and swedes for stockfeeding. In 1977, as a result of changes in the census categories, fodder beet was included with mangolds in England and Wales but continued to be included with turnips and swedes for stockfeeding in Scotland and Northern Ireland. [3] Before June 1975 collected in England and Wales as Clover, sainfoin and temporary grasses; in Scotland as Grass under seven years old; in Northern Ireland as Grass 1st, 2nd and 3rd year. [4] Before June 1975 collected in England and Wales as Permanent grass; in Scotland as Grass seven years old and over; in Northern Ireland as Grass 4th year or older. [5] Includes the total area of deer forest in Scotland. [6] The fall of about 400 thousand hectares in the total area of rough grazings between 1969 and 1970 is largely accounted for by the exclusion from the census of the 16,000 statistically insignificant holdings in Scotland. [7] Before June 1974 in England and Wales, collected as Woodland ancillary to farming. [8] In Scotland collected as Woodland ancillary to farming. [9] Before June 1974 in England and Wales collected as Other land used for agriculture and in Scotland as Area of yards, roads and buildings.

Note: Tables 9.4 and 9.5. The estimated yields of sugar beet and hops are obtained from production figures supplied by the British Sugar Corporation and the Hops Marketing Board. In Great Britain potato yields are estimated in consultation with the Potato Marketing Board.

[1] UK gross production in calendar years. [2] Before 1977 fodder beet was included with turnips and swedes for stockfeeding. In 1977, as a result of changes in the census categories, fodder beet was included with mangolds in England and Wales but continued to be included with turnips and swedes for stockfeeding in Scotland and Northern Ireland. [3] Weight in pods. [4] Shelled weight. [5] Data for sugar beet is not collected in Northern Ireland or, from 1972, in Scotland. [6] The production of hay in England and Wales is calculated from the area cut for hay and actually harvested and does not include the area mown for silage, drying or seed; the production of hay in Scotland and Northern Ireland is calculated from the area cut for hay only and does not include grass mown for silage or drying. [7] Before 1975 collected in England and Wales as clover, sainfoin and temporary grasses; in Scotland as grass under seven years old; in Northern Ireland as grass under four years old. [8] Includes hay from lucerne in England and Wales, and from all grassland in Scotland. [9] Before 1975 collected as: in England and Wales — permanent grass; in Scotland — grass seven years old and over; in Northern Ireland — grass four years old and over. [10] Excluding Scotland from 1969. [11] The estimates of production and yield for straw in 1975 are calculated on the actual area harvested and not on the total area used for growing wheat, barley and oats, as in previous years.

[1] Owned by farmers and contractors (including Ministry services). Figures for England and Wales are at March, September or December until 1973, when figures were collected at December only. Normally figures for Scotland are at February, and for Northern Ireland at December. [2] In Scotland and Northern Ireland censuses of machinery and farm implements are normally taken at three-year intervals. [3] Tractor figures amended to show full results from the December 1972 census. It is thought that these figures are understated – possibly due to changes in timing and questions. [4] In England and Wales, as from 1971, power divisions are specified according to p.t.o. (power take-off) horse power and not, as in previous years, to b.h.p. (brake horse power). [5] Over 10 h.p. in England and Wales from 1967 and in Northern Ireland in 1966, 1970 and 1972. [6] Up to and including 10 h.p. in England and Wales from 1967, and in Northern Ireland from 1966. [7] Cultivators and harrows other than disc. Including grubbers, scufflers and hoes. [8] Including combined seed and fertilizer drills. [9] England and Wales figures for 1970 relate to the number of installations, those for 1968 relate to the number of teat-cup clusters. The United Kingdom total for 1966 includes the figures for teat-cup clusters in England and Wales and Scotland. The figure for 1970 includes the figures for teat-cup clusters in Scotland.

[1] The figures given for the Forestry Commission relate to the eighteen months from October 1967 to March 1969. [2] Includes unproductive woodland. Since 1974 40,000 hectares of unproductive forest land consisting of old felled woodland have been excluded from the figures as it is considered that this area is more properly regarded as agricultural land. Similarly a reduction to unproductive land was made in 1978 to adjust for a reclassification of this land to meet the figure of 'Retained Scrub' published in the Forest Commission Annual Report. [3] The figures for Northern Ireland refer to year ending 30 September up to and including 1975/76 and thereafter to year ending 31 December. [4] Including replanting after felling and change by fire. [5] Including areas replanted. [6] Northern Ireland figures are produced on a calendar year basis from 1976 (i.e. years end 31 December).

Excluding all free-hauled traffic. From 1969 onwards, including estimates for former freightliners and sundries traffic by rail now handled by Freightliners Ltd. and NCL. [3] The survey on which coastal shipping figures were previously based has been discontinued. Tonnages are from an alternative source which does not give tonne kilometres, for which the older source has been used up to 1976. [4] Excluding movements of gases by pipelines. All pipelines of less than 16 kilometres were excluded. [5] British Waterways Board only.

The basis of calculating London Transport railways' Passenger kilometres has been revised from Passenger kilometres paid for to Passenger kilometres travelled. [3] Calculated from operators' returns of numbers of passengers carried, using estimates for average length of journey. [4] Based on statistics of vehicle mileage derived from the traffic counts and estimates of average numbers of persons per vehicle, derived from the Motoring and National Travel surveys. [5] Figures from 1968 have been revised in the light of new estimates of vehicle mileage.

[1] The figures are based on a sample count during the third quarter for the years 1968–74. From 1974 the census method underlying the count of the stock of licensed vehicles has been changing as vehicle records have gradually been transferred from Local Taxation Offices to the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Centre in Swansea. Consequently stock figures from 1974 to 1978 are not strictly comparable. No census results are available for 1977. Both June 1978 and December 1978 censuses were obtained from a full count of licensing records at Driver and Vehicle Licensing Centre. Future censuses will be taken annually on 31 December. Vehicles operating under the Crown Vehicles Scheme are included. Those operating under defence permits are excluded. [2] 1978 Census taken on 30 June. [3] 1978 Census taken on 31 December. [4] From 1970 includes vehicles individually exported by users. [5] Owned by a farmer and available for hauling produce and requisites for his farm. [6] Agricultural tractors are excluded unless driven on public roads. [7] Includes buses and coaches operated under the Crown Vehicles Scheme. [8] Increase in 1978 figure due to change in rules regarding mobility allowances for disabled persons modified cars. Exemptions now available instead of licenses. Includes invalid vehicles.

[1] The National Bus Company and Scottish Bus Group replaced the Transport Holding Company in January 1969, and the first four passenger transport executives were formed in 1969/70. Three further P.T.E.s have been formed, in Glasgow during 1973, and in South and West Yorkshire in 1974, and the other P.T.E.s were enlarged to cover the other metropolitan counties, figures prior to 1976 have been revised to take into account all changes between the various parts of the public sector and between the private and public sectors.

[1] The figures are based on a sample count during the third quarter for the years 1967-74. From 1974 the census method underlying the count of the stock of licensed vehicles has been changing as vehicle records have gradually been transferred from Local Taxation Offices to the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Centre. Consequently stock figures from 1974 to 1978 are not strictly comparable. No census results are available for 1977. Both June 1978 and December 1978 censuses were obtained from a full count of licensing records at DVLC. Future censuses will be taken annually on 31 December. [2] Predominantly light vehicles of unladen weight not exceeding 2 tons. [3] Excluding from 1970 Post Office vehicles which up to 1969 formed the large majority of the Crown vehicles. [4] 1978 census taken on 30 June. [5] 1978 census taken 31 December.

[1] Estimates for 1962 are based on a survey. Estimates for 1969 are based on a survey conducted in the twelve months from June 1967. Estimates from 1970 are based on a continuing survey started in 1970. Estimates for other years are interpolations. In 1970 the carriers' licensing system ended and the distinction between own account and hire and reward was no longer available. From 1971 the distinction has been based on operator returns from the continuing survey. [2] Vehicles under 1½ tons unladen weight were freed from licensing on 25 October 1968. For later years adjustments have been made to include the estimated work done by these smaller vehicles so as to maintain comparability with previous years. [3] From 1978 onwards includes the small amount of work performed in Northern Ireland by British registered goods vehicles.

[1] In addition to the rolling stock shown a number of privately-owned wagons are authorised for working over British Rail lines (18,438 in 1978 of which 12,439 were tank wagons) as well as a number of vehicles of continental administrations. [2] Excluding narrow gauge steam locomotives (3 in 1978). [3] Including diesel locomotives used for shunting (986 in 1978). [4] Since 1969, excluding 17 narrow gauge coaching vehicles. [5] Includes those from which a catering service is operated (550 in 1978) and sleeping cars (364 in 1978). [6] Includes brake vans used in coaching (1,532 in 1978). [7] Excluding narrow gauge route open to traffic (19 kilometres in 1978). In 1969 20 kilometres of track were transferred to London Transport by British Rail and approximately 3 kilometres in 1970. [8] A number of combined passenger and freight stations have been reclassified as single purpose stations over the period. [1] Grants received by British Rail in respect of certain subsidised passenger services are not included in passenger receipts. [2] Figures for passenger traffic in 1969 were affected by the transfer of the Bow-Upminster line from British Rail to London Transport and in 1970 by the similar transfer of the Paddington-Westbourne Park service at the City end of the Hammersmith and City line. [3] The receipts and passenger kilometres include an appropriate proportion in respect of through bookings with the railways of London Transport and other administrations. Passenger journeys in respect of such through bookings are included. In 1977, 690 million journeys originated on British Rail only. [4] Miscellaneous receipts include charges for platform tickets, seat reservations, demurrage, provision of shunting services, etc. The 1972 figure includes a £27 million government grant. [5] For the period prior to 1975 all season ticket journeys and passenger kilometres were calculated on the basis of 540 journeys per annum. From 1975 these calculations are based on a rate of 480 journeys per year per annual season ticket and 540 journeys for shorter period tickets. Return tickets have been counted as two journeys. [6] Excluding free-hauled traffic on freight trains. [7] In 1973 British Rail published estimated tonnage figures for the first time for coaching train traffic. This means that the previous freight train traffic only totals are no longer strictly comparable with those since 1973. [8] Excluding freight carried by passenger trains. [9] From 1978, the method of estimating net tonne kilometres has been revised to reflect the present operational working of freight trains and figures are therefore not comparable with those for earlier years.

[3] Non-passenger trains consist of vehicles for the conveyance of freight at coaching train rates. [4] Excluding all free-hauled traffic. [5] From 1978, the method of estimating loaded wagon kilometres has been revised to reflect the present operational working of freight trains and figures are therefore not comparable with those for earlier years.

[1] The receipts and passenger kilometres include an appropriate proportion in respect of through bookings from British Rail. Passenger journeys in respect of such through bookings are included. [2] Figures for London Transport railways from 1970 onwards are no longer comparable with previous years following the transfer of the Westbourne Park-Paddington terminal section of the Hammersmith and City (Metropolitan) Line. [3] London Transport railway passenger kilometres have been revised from passenger kilometres paid for to Passenger kilometres travelled. [4] Season ticket journeys and passenger kilometres are calculated on the basis of 600 journeys per annum. [5] Train and car kilometres exclude kilometres run by London Transport trains over British Rail lines but include kilometres run by British Rail trains over London Transport lines.

[1] Figures for BR (Railways) include piece-work payments and tonnage bonus, payments for overtime, Saturday afternoon and Sunday duty, and night duty, and all other payments for work performed, but excluding travelling and out-of-pocket expenses and meal and lodging allowances. Averages are based on all staff who worked during the week regardless of whether or not they worked for the whole of the week. [2] The age which adult rates are paid is usually 20 years for conciliation grades and 21 years for workshop grades. [3] Figures are at April and October. [4] Including juniors; numbers of juniors employed account for only about one-half of one per cent of the total number of manual workers. [5] Includes certain part-time workers of London Transport Executive, and from 1968 to 1971 of British Rail.

Films (Table 10.93)

The commercial feature film industry in the United Kingdom is supported by the following legislation:

The Films Acts 1960–1979 impose a screen quota on cinema exhibitors showing 35 mm films. This obliges them to show a specified proportion of British and Community (national films of another member State) films each year. The present quota is 30 per cent for a first feature film and 25 per cent for supporting programme. In order to monitor compliance with this requirement films showing to the public in cinemas must be registered with, and cinema exhibitors and film renters must be licensed by, the Department of Trade.

The Cinematograph Films Acts 1957–1975 impose a levy on the prices of admission to cinemas exhibiting 35 mm and 70 mm films to the public and the proceeds are paid into the British Film Fund for the benefit of the makers of eligible British films.

There is no element of subsidy from public funds in the quota and levy arrangements.

[3] Community films, which are also quota films, are national films of the member states of EEC and the figures for 1972/73, 1973/74 and 1974/75 are inflated by the inclusion of films which had previously been registered as foreign.

XI. Distributive Trades and Services n.e.s.

Annual retailing inquiries (Table 11.1).

1976 commenced a new series of annual sample inquiries into retailing introduced to replace the periodic censuses of distribution which had been taken between 1950 and 1971.

The inquiries are taken as a sample from the register of businesses compiled by the Business Statistics Office (BSO) from information on the name and address, trade classification and turnover of traders registered for Value Added Tax (VAT). They cover those businesses whose VAT trade code shows them to be registered for VAT purposes to the retail trade headings in trade group 24 of the VAT Trade Classification (other than VAT trade code 8228 covering opticians). Also included are those businesses with other

VAT trade codes which are believed, on the basis of previous inquiries, to undertake a significant amount of retailing activity.

The availability of this register for these inquiries made it possible to design a stratified random sample of about 30,000 businesses for 1976. In 1977, building on experience gained, the sample was reduced to approximately 25,000.

To provide some linkage between the last of the censuses of distribution and the new series of annual retailing inquiries the 1971 figures have been adjusted to take into account, as far as possible, changes in classification and presentation.

Research and Development

Introduction

Research and experimental development (R & D) in the United Kingdom is financed and carried out mainly by the Government, industry, universities and further education institutions, and various non-profit-making bodies. In 1975 over £2,000 million was spent on R & D. Full-scale inquiries covering industrial R & D are at present held every third year, but there is an annual survey of central government expenditure and employment on R & D.

In line with international recommendations, research and experimental development is defined for statistical purposes as 'creative work undertaken on a systematic basis in order to increase the stock of knowledge, including knowledge of man, culture and society, and the use of this stock of knowledge to devise new applications'.

Definitions of the sectors surveyed and notes on the survey procedures employed are given in Research and Development: Expenditure and Employment (Studies in Official Statistics No 27, HMSO 1976).

For the 1975 enquiry, industrial firms were asked to provide figures relating to the calendar year 1975 or the business year ending on a date between 6 April 1975 and 5 April 1976. The returns from government departments relate to the financial year ended 31 March 1976. The estimates for the universities relate to the academic year 1974/75 and other figures relate to the financial year ended 31 March 1976.

Further details of all sectors' expenditure on R & D up to 1975, government figures up to 1977/78, numbers of persons on research work in the government and industry sectors, and a commentary on recent trends in R & D expenditure, are given in an article — 'Research and development: expenditure and employment' — in the July 1979 issue of Economic Trends (HMSO).

Comments on Table 11.11

This table covers R & D in the natural and medical sciences and engineering, and excludes research in the social sciences and humanities.

The totals of both sections of the table are the amounts of R & D performed in the United Kingdom and exclude R & D performed abroad which is financed by this country. No survey of R & D performed by local authorities has been carried out for 1975; estimates of local authorities' expenditure in 1975 have however been included in the all-sector figures.

The figures of government financing of R & D as returned by the Government and as returned by the sectors carrying out the work differ in part due to timing (see Introduction above) and also because of the adoption by central government of a wider definition of R & D.

Comments on Tables 11.12 and 11.13

Central government expenditure on R & D, including that of research councils, is surveyed annually and covers R & D in the social sciences as well as R & D in the natural sciences.

The distinction between social science and other R & D has been retained in the accompanying tables, though it has been found difficult to make in practice. The borderline between research and other related activities, such as information services and general purpose data collection, is also difficult to define, especially for the social sciences. The figures for social science research are therefore considered to be less reliable than those for government R & D as a whole.

Table 11.12, as distinct from Table 11.11 includes money spent by the government to finance R & D work performed overseas.

Table 11.12 shows the gross expenditure of government on R & D: 'gross' in that any receipts used to finance the expenditure are not deducted. Money spent on R & D work done by government itself (intra-mural expenditure) is distinguished from money passed to other sectors to fund R & D work (extra-mural expenditure). Table 11.12 shows natural and social science R & D separately, the former being analysed by functional groups of expenditure.

Table 11.13 relates to net government expenditure on R & D (budgeted expenditure), that is gross expenditure less receipts allocated directly towards financing the expenditure. The table shows total expenditure broken down according to the SOEC objectives classification of budgeted expenditure on R & D.

Comments on Table 11.14

The trend in the 'volume' of R & D performed can be shown by means of estimates of expenditure at constant prices, using the most appropriate price indices which can be prepared to revalue the current price figures. Work on constructing price indices specifically for R & D expenditure has been undertaken by the Department of Industry and by international organisations only in recent years. Table 11.14 shows figures for each of the industrial survey years from 1964 to 1975 at constant (1975) prices for total R & D in the natural sciences performed in the United Kingdom and the amounts performed by the government and industry, the latter being analysed by major product group. An article giving broad details of the method used in producing figures of R & D expenditure at constant prices was published in Trade and Industry (HMSO) on 6 April 1979.

Comments on Table 11.15

The Table gives details of the 1972 and 1975 surveys of industrial R & D.

Firms covered in the surveys were asked to provide figures for each product group in which they had incurred research and development expenditure. Product groups generally correspond quite closely to industry groups, since manufacturing industries are defined in terms of the products they make and a high proportion of the output of a particular product usually comes from a single industry group. Fuller details are given in the publication Trade and Industry (HMSO) for 24 June 1977 and 1 July 1977. Some amendments have been made to the figures since publication.

[1] Excluding social science research. [2] 1975 figures estimated. [3] For 1967, this covers research and development (R & D) budgets only: other monies earned by R & D departments of private industry and used for their R & D programmes are included under the category Other. The sum involved is estimated to be £12.6 million. From 1968, any receipts of this kind that would be identified have been included with R & D budgets under this heading. [4] Including £0.7 million in 1967, £0.5 million in 1968, £0.9 million in 1969, £0.6 million in 1972 and £1.1 million in 1975 financed by research associations. [5] The percentages applying to the government sector have been calculated using the figures returned by the sectors carrying out the work and these percentages have been apportioned pro rata over those subdivisions of the government sector shown here.

XII. External Trade

The tables covering external trade have been compiled from information published in the Annual Statement of the Trade of the United Kingdom (discontinued after 1975) and from the annual and monthly Overseas Trade Statistics of the United Kingdom from 1976. United Kingdom is defined as Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and the Continental Shelf (United Kingdom part). The grouping of the commodities, previously shown in the sections and divisions of the Standard International Trade Classification (Revised), is currently based on those of the SITC (Revision 2) or SITC (R2) which was introduced into the Overseas Trade Statistics from January 1978. The statistics in Table 12.1 are on a balance of payments basis; all other statistics in this section are on an Overseas Trade Statistics basis. The adjustment of the value of external trade on an Overseas Trade Statistics basis to a balance of payments basis is shown in Table 13.3. For more detailed figures, notes and definitions relating to external trade, reference should be made to these volumes and also to the annual publication United Kingdom Balance of Payments (the Pink Book) and Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes to the Monthly Digest of Statistics.

Changes in the coverage of the overseas trade statistics are made from time to time but as far as possible figures in this report have been adjusted to the current basis. Re-exports have not been separately distinguished in the statistics of UK trade since 1 January 1970 and are included with exports of UK produce. All the figures in these tables have been adjusted to include re-exports with exports. The statistics of exports (except those in Table 12.1) do not contain any allowance for the under-recording of exports.

Parcel post figures are based on estimated values of parcels which are revised periodically. Estimates used for 1970 to 1973 are based on a parcel post sample survey conducted in 1968/1969 and later periods on a 1976 survey.

From 1 January 1970 imports and exports, other than by parcel post, of low individual value are aggregated under Section 9 as Commodities and transactions not classified according to kind. Up to 31 August 1973 this applied to consignments worth less than £50; from 1 September 1973 this was extended to cover consignments worth less than £100 and from January 1977 the figure was increased to £150. This trade, amounting to a very small proportion of total trade, is not analysed either by commodity or country. Figures from 1970 for individual commodity and country headings are therefore deficient to the extent of these consignments.

[1] Statistics of visible trade on a balance of payments basis are obtained by making certain adjustments in respect of valuation and coverage to the statistics recorded in the Overseas Trade Statistics. These adjustments are summarised in Table 13.3; they are described in detail in United Kingdom Balance of Payments 1979 Edition. Note: These statistics are on an overseas trade statistics basis (see footnote [1] to Table 12.1).

[1] Values in Table 12.2 include Trade in second hand aircraft. In 1970 the values of this trade were for exports, £90 million and for imports, £106 million. The index numbers for the period from 1970 onwards include this trade but those for the earlier years exclude it because information is not available. These two separate index number series have been linked together in order to obtain a time series for the whole of the period shown.

XIII. Balance of Payments

Tables 13.1 to 13.21 in this section are derived from United Kingdom Balance of Payments 1979 Edition (the 'Pink Book') and Tables 13.22–13.25 are based on the annual publication British Aid Statistics, the latest edition of which covers the period 1973 to 1977.

The following general notes and footnotes to the tables provide brief definitions and explanations of the figures and terms used. Further notes are included in the publications named above. As far as possible transactions have been included in the balance of payments at the rate of exchange at which the transactions took place, and revaluations of balances denominated in overseas currencies arising from changes in exchange rates from 23 August, 1971 onwards have been excluded from the figures.

Current account

In principle, transactions are recorded when the ownership of goods or assets changes and when services are rendered.

Visible trade

The Overseas Trade Statistics of the United Kingdom are the basis of the balance of payments figures, but certain adjustments are made in respect of valuation and coverage. The principal adjustment is the deduction of freight and insurance from the Trade Statistics figures of imports. Details are given in Table 13.3.

Invisibles: Services

General government

Investment and other capital transactions

Official long-term capital

Inter-government loans

The entries under this item cover drawings and repayments of loans made by the UK government to overseas governments and drawings and repayments of loans made to the UK government by overseas governments. The four flows of inter-government loans are shown in Table 13.12.

The item covers the UK capital subscriptions to the International Development Association and other international lending bodies, other than the IMF, net loans and investment by the Commonwealth Development Corporation and other official capital items of a long-term nature.

Overseas investment in UK public sector

This consists of transactions with overseas residents in British government and government guaranteed stocks (excluding those with central monetary institutions and international organisations): dated British government foreign currency bonds offered in April 1977 to overseas official holders of sterling, local authority securities and mortgages; public corporations and local authorities net issues abroad and net borrowing abroad from banks, etc., other than under the exchange cover scheme. An analysis is given in Table 13.11.

UK private sector investment

An analysis of overseas investment in UK private sector and UK private investment overseas is given in Table 13.11.

Direct investment comprises net investment by overseas companies, in their UK affiliates, including the reinvestment of retained profits, and by UK companies in their overseas branches, subsidiaries and associates. Government departments, oil companies and, prior to 1969, foreign-owned insurance companies are excluded. Outward investment of a number of public corporations is included.

Overseas investment in UK company securities represents the changes in the holdings by overseas residents of UK company securities, including securities issued abroad.

UK portfolio investment overseas consists mainly of net purchases and sales of overseas government, municipal and company securities.

Other (oil and miscellaneous) investment overseas includes UK oil companies' investment abroad on a basis comparable with the estimates of other direct investment.

Overseas currency borrowing or lending (net) by UK banks

Covers changes in external liabilities and claims of UK banks in overseas currencies other than liabilities in the form of bills lodged with the banks. Also excluded are the external borrowing by UK banks to finance their participation in the $2.5 billion and $1.5 billion facilities arranged for HM Government and their lending to UK public bodies under the exchange cover scheme.

Borrowing to finance UK investment overseas

This comprises the counterpart, in deposits taken by UK banks from non-residents, of overseas currency loans by UK banks to UK residents to finance UK investment overseas.

Other borrowing or lending (net)

This covers borrowing which is switched into sterling by the banks and on-lent to UK residents for domestic purposes, and lending to overseas residents which represents either the counterpart to foreign currency deposits with banks by UK banks having exchange control permission, or sterling assets which have been switched into overseas currencies within the exchange control limits imposed on the banks.

Exchange reserves in sterling

Changes in sterling reserves of overseas countries and international organisations, other than the International Monetary Fund, as reported by UK banks, etc. Transactions in British government stocks, including government guaranteed stocks, and banking and money market liabilities in sterling are shown separately.

Other external banking and money market liabilities in sterling

Transactions by overseas holders other than central monetary institutions and international organisations, in

Treasury bills, and sterling deposits with UK banks, other financial institutions and local authorities.

Import credit

This item consists of the change in trade credit received by UK businesses from overseas businesses other than affiliates and parent companies, less advance and progress payments made by UK businesses. Prior to 1973 information on credit received on oil company ships is not available separately and is included in 'Other commercial short-term transactions (net)'.

For convenience, import deposits paid direct to HM Customs by overseas firms in 1968 to 1971 are included in this heading.

Export credit

The entries consist of the net changes in credit extended by banks in the United Kingdom and trade credit extended by UK businesses to overseas businesses other than affiliates and parent companies, less advance and progress payments, net credit extended by UK merchants on third-country trade is included.

Other short-term transactions

Consists of changes in the following: total UK external sterling claims other than export bills; official assets and liabilities (n.e.i.); other commercial short-term transactions (net); IMF administrative and operational expenditure and receipts in sterling and IMF gold deposits in the United Kingdom. For 1973 onwards other commercial short-term transactions (net) excludes trade credit on oil companies' ships which thereafter is included in import credit.

Balancing item

Represents the net total of errors and omissions in other items.

EEA loss on forward commitments

Records the loss arising from the fact that the Exchange Equalisation Account forward commitments with the market entered into before devaluation in 1967 have been recorded as being settled on maturity at the new parity.

Official financing

Details of these components are given in Table 13.13.

IMF

Other overseas monetary authorities

Net borrowing from other monetary authorities and assistance with a sterling counterpart in the form of foreign currency deposits, and swaps with overseas monetary authorities.

Foreign currency borrowing by HM Government

These are drawings on euro-dollar facilities arranged by the Bank of England with UK clearing banks, their associates, and overseas banks on behalf of HM Government to borrow foreign currency for periods of up to ten years. The transactions are allocated to the debtor (HM Government) rather than the transactor (the banks). Also included is an issue of $350 million of HM Government seven and fifteen year bonds made in New York in April 1978.

Other Western Europe

Austria, Andorra, Faroe Islands, Finland, Gibraltar, Greece, Iceland, Malta, Norway, Portugal (including Azores and Madeira), Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Continental Shelf (foreign parts).

North America

USA, Canada, Puerto Rico, Greenland and St. Pierre and Miquelon.

Foreign currency borrowing by public bodies under exchange cover scheme

This is all borrowing by UK public bodies under the exchange cover scheme first introduced in 1969. These borrowings (net of repayments) are in the form of issues abroad, borrowing from banks, etc. overseas or from UK banks but are included in official financing since they are regarded as primarily motivated by considerations of reserve management, the foreign currency generated being added to the official reserves.

Overseas aid

(Tables 13.22–13.25)

Until 1972 there was some identity between what had for domestic purposes been recognised as the aid programme (for example in the context of the Public Expenditure White Papers) and the OECD Development Assistance Committee's concept of official development assistance. But with effect from 1972 elements of national subscriptions to the regular budgets of certain multilateral organisations that finance projects in developing countries have been included in the recognised definition of official development assistance although remaining outside the aid programme. Since 1973 there has been a further refinement in that flows with a grant element of less than 25 per cent fall outside the definition of official development assistance. For the purpose of tables in the Annual Abstract and also related data in Financial Statistics, the figures pertain to public expenditure on overseas aid (see programme 2.5 as shown in Public Expenditure to 1981–82 (Cmnd 6721-II)).

Tables 13.22 to 13.24 reflect gross disbursements (that is without making any allowance for repayments on earlier loans). Table 13.25 shows the main components of gross bilateral disbursements presented in Table 13.22 for the past three years, with particulars of loans given net as well as gross. For international reporting and balance of payments recording, the cancellation of debt is treated as repayment on past loans combined with an equivalent increase in grants: such offsetting transactions are disregarded in the present context.

Statistical information concerning the UK aid effort and the one per cent target is contained in British Aid Statistics 1973–1977 (HMSO 1978). International comparisons are available in the OECD's annual Development Co-operation: Efforts and Policies of the Members of the Development Assistance Committee (available from HMSO).

Official reserves

The gold, IMF Special Drawing Rights and convertible currencies held in the Exchange Equalisation Account together with, from July 1972, the reserve position in the IMF. Drawings on and additions to official reserves equal the changes in the sterling value of the level of the reserves only prior to 23 August 1971. Since then drawings on and additions to the reserves base have been valued in sterling at market-related rates of exchange and no longer equal the difference between the opening and closing levels of the reserves. Table 13.21 shows the level of the reserves broken down between gold, SDRs, convertible currencies and, from July 1972, the reserve position in the IMF. The dollar value of the level of the reserves is, from the end of 1972 onwards, converted to sterling at the end-period market rates of exchange.

XIV. National Income and Expenditure

The tables which follow are taken from those in National Income and Expenditure 1979 Edition, published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office (September 1979). Some of the figures are provisional and may have to be revised later; this applies particularly to the figures for 1978.

A general description of the statistics, together with a detailed description of the sources, methods and definitions used in making the estimates, is given in National Accounts Statistics: Sources and Methods (HMSO 1968) and is brought up to date in National Income and Expenditure 1979 Edition.

In the tables in this section the analyses by industry are based, as far as possible, on the Standard Industrial Classification 1968.

The first aggregate measured in these tables is the gross national product. This is an estimate of the value of the goods and services produced by UK residents (the gross domestic product) together with net property income from abroad. The gross national product is not identical with the national income. The latter is defined as equal to the total of goods and services becoming available after deducting what is required to maintain real capital intact (the gross national product less capital consumption).

Gross national product by category of expenditure (Table 14.1). This table shows the various money flows which generate the gross domestic product and the gross national product. These include expenditure by UK final buyers—that is, expenditure on goods and services other than for use in current production and re-sale—and expenditure on British exports by overseas purchasers. The sum of these two items overstates the amount of income generated in the United Kingdom by the value of imports of goods and services; this item is therefore subtracted to produce gross domestic product at market prices. The addition of net property income from abroad (the income of UK residents from their economic activity abroad and from property held abroad less the corresponding income of non-residents arising in the United Kingdom) gives gross national product at market prices.

In the lower half of the table each of the components of final expenditure and the aggregates is shown adjusted to a factor cost basis of valuation by deducting taxes on expenditure and adding subsidies to the market price valuations. Gross domestic product at factor cost is equal to the sum of the incomes of the factors of production before deduction of depreciation.

Gross national product by category of income (Table 14.2). This table shows the contribution to the gross national product of the different factors of production. The profit items in the upper half of the table—income from self-employment, trading profits of companies, trading surpluses of public corporations and of other public enterprises—are shown before any deduction for depreciation and before providing for stock appreciation. (Stock appreciation is the change in value of stocks due to the change, if any, in the prices at which stocks are valued in the reckoning of profits.) This element of stock appreciation is deducted in reckoning the total of the gross national product. In the lower half of the table each of the items is shown after providing for stock appreciation but before providing for depreciation.

Personal income and expenditure (Table 14.3). 'Persons' are here defined as including unincorporated businesses and private non-profit-making bodies. Income is shown gross before providing for depreciation or stock appreciation. Employers' national insurance contributions are treated as employee income taxed at source and therefore appear under both income and expenditure. Personal saving before providing for depreciation or stock appreciation is estimated as a residual and is subject to a wide margin of error.

Corporate income appropriation account (Table 14.4). Trading profits earned in the United Kingdom are shown before providing for stock appreciation and before deduction of depreciation allowances. Profits from operations outside the United Kingdom are included under income earned abroad. Dividends paid by one company to another are excluded both from dividends and from non-trading income. Additions to dividend reserves represent the excess of provision for dividends out of the year's income over the dividends actually paid in the year. Additions to tax reserves represent the net excess of accruals of tax over the amount actually paid.

Current account of central government including National Insurance Fund (Table 14.5). This presentation of the government accounts differs from the Exchequer accounts in a number of important respects. It is an account for the whole of the government, including the National Insurance Fund, not for the Exchequer alone. Secondly, it excludes certain receipts and payments which are regarded as capital items. Thirdly, it differs considerably in its treatment of the receipts and payments of trading services.

Summary capital account (Table 14.7). This table brings together the saving and investment of the several sectors of the economy and shows the total investment at home and overseas.

International transactions (Table 14.8). This account is equivalent to the current account of the balance of payments. The items are the same as those given in United Kingdom Balance of Payments 1979 Edition. Imports and exports of services include such 'invisible' items as shipping services, travel and government overseas expenditure. Current transfers include grants for economic and military aid to overseas governments, migrants' remittances and private gifts.

Index numbers of gross domestic product and gross national disposable income (Table 14.9). This table brings together the various estimates of gross domestic product and the average estimate of gross national disposable income at constant market prices. They are shown in index number form with the base year for the constant price estimates as 1975 = 100. The average estimates relate to the unweighted arithmetic average of the three estimates based on expenditure, income and output data.

Gross domestic product by industry (Table 14.10). This table shows the contribution of each industry to the gross domestic product, measured as the sum of incomes, before providing for depreciation, arising in the industry. This is also equal to the 'value added' by the industry, that is, the excess of the value of its current output over the value of goods and services purchased from outside the industry and used in production.

Expenditure and output at constant prices (Tables 14.11 and 14.12). These tables contain two virtually independent estimates of the gross domestic product of the United Kingdom at 1975 prices. The estimates in Table 14.11 are based on the index of industrial production and other statistics relating to the volume of output; those in Table 14.12 have been derived by revaluing estimates of final expenditure on goods and services at average 1975 prices. With full and accurate information the two methods would in theory lead to the same result. In practice, because there are numerous imperfections and gaps in the data, the two methods produce different results. Notes on the rebasing of constant price estimates on 1975 are given in National Income and Expenditure 1979 Edition.

Consumers' expenditure at current and constant prices (Table 14.13). Consumers' expenditure is a major component of final expenditure contributing to gross domestic product calculated by the expenditure method, at current prices (Table 14.1) and at constant prices (Table 14.12).

Consumers' expenditure covers all expenditure by the personal sector, including private non-profit-making bodies serving persons, on goods and services for current use: but excludes business expenditure on cars, meals, etc. which is allowed as a business expense in computing income for tax purposes of both employed and self-employed persons.

It includes expenditure of durable goods, for instance motor cars, which from the point of view of the individual might more appropriately be treated as capital expenditure. The only exception is the purchase of land and dwellings and costs incurred in connection with the transfer of their ownership, which are treated as personal capital expenditure.

The estimates of consumers' expenditure include purchases of second-hand as well as new goods, less the proceeds of sales of used goods.

Detailed definitions of the items of consumers' expenditure are given in Chapter VI of National Accounts Statistics: Sources and Methods (HMSO 1968).

Company appropriation account (Table 14.14). With the introduction of the imputation system of corporation tax from 6 April 1973, companies paying dividends, instead of deducting income tax which had to be accounted for to the Inland Revenue and paying the dividend net, have been liable to pay advance corporation tax to the Inland Revenue in respect of the dividend paid; the rate of advance corporation tax was 30/70ths of the dividend paid up to 31 March 1974, 33/67ths up to 31 March 1975, 35/65ths up to 31 March 1977, 34/66ths up to 31 March 1978 and 33/67ths thereafter. These payments of advance corporation tax are mainly made in the first month following the end of the quarter in which dividends were paid; they can subsequently be set against companies' corporation tax liability. This change in the taxation system is reflected in the company sector appropriation account, so that, for example payments of ordinary dividends, previously shown gross of income tax, now appear as actual payments; the associated advance corporation tax is included within payments of UK taxes on income.

Company profits (Table 14.15). Trading profits, before deduction of tax or interest payments, of companies and financial institutions operating in the United Kingdom, including UK branches and subsidiaries of non-resident parent companies.

Public corporations: appropriation account (Table 14.16). A list of the public corporations included in this account is given in National Income and Expenditure 1979 Edition.

Value of physical increase in stocks and work in progress (Table 14.17). This table gives a broad analysis by industry, and, for manufacturing industry, by asset, of the physical increase in stocks and work in progress. The physical increase at current prices equals the change in the book value of stocks less stock appreciation.

Analysis of general government expenditure (Table 14.18). This table analyses the expenditure on current and capital account of the central government and local authorities excluding transfer payments between the two sectors. All operating expenditure by trading bodies is excluded: but where operating receipts are less than operating expenditure and the deficit is met by a subsidy, the amount of the subsidy is included. Debt interest and non-trading capital consumption are omitted from the functional analysis, as they cannot be allocated satisfactorily. The economic classification of each of the functional heads is shown in Table 9.4 of National Income and Expenditure 1979 Edition. The coverage of each of the heads is described in National Accounts Statistics: Sources and Methods.

An alternative analysis of government expenditure, in financial years, on social services and housing appears in Tables 3.1 to 3.6.

Gross domestic fixed capital formation (Table 14.19). Fixed capital formation comprises expenditure on the replacement of, and additions to, the stock of fixed capital assets located in the United Kingdom, including all ships and aircraft of UK ownership.

[1] This table provides a measure of changes in the volume of goods and services produced. For a general account of the methods of compiling the index numbers, see The measurement of changes in production, Studies in Official Statistics No. 25 (HMSO 1976), which describes the compilation of the index numbers on the basis 1970 = 100. See Series and weights used in estimating the gross domestic product at constant factor cost, Output Measures: Occasional Paper No. 9 (available on request from the Central Statistical Office) for a list of series and weights used in compiling the index numbers on the basis 1975 = 100. See also the notes to Table 2.2 in National Income and Expenditure 1979. [2] As from 1970 the figures are adjusted to allow for the use of delivery rather than production indicators to represent output in certain industries within manufacturing. [3] Total output other than exploration for, and extraction of, petroleum and natural gas (MLH 104) is as follows (weight 999.9 parts for 1,000):

[1] It is estimated that a fall in the book value of stocks of £280 million took place in 1973 on the introduction of VAT as a result of the change in treatment of tax in the valuation of stocks. The fall has been allocated as follows:

|                              | £ million |                  | £ million |
|------------------------------|-----------|------------------|-----------|
| Manufacturers                | 34        | Wholesalers      | 36        |
| of which: Materials and fuel | 4         | Retailers        | 181       |
| Work in progress             | 8         | Other industries | 29        |
| Finished products            | 22        |                  |           |

This allocation is approximate particularly in relation to the asset analysis of manufacturers' stocks. The 1975 price figures are not affected. [2] Differences between totals and the sum of constituent parts of manufacturing at 1975 prices for 1973 onwards and for all current prices are due to rounding. Differences between totals and components at 1975 prices before 1973 arise from the method of rebasing these years on to 1975 prices.

XV. Personal Income, Expenditure and Wealth

Family Expenditure Survey (Tables 15.4–15.6)

The Family Expenditure Survey, introduced in 1957, covers all types of private households in the United Kingdom. It is a continuing enquiry in which a sample of about 11,000 addresses is selected annually, from which an effective sample of some 10,400 households is obtained, of which about 70 per cent co-operate. The main purpose of the survey is to provide a source of the weighting pattern of the Index of Retail Prices and so it is primarily concerned with household expenditure on a wide range of goods and services.

The income information the survey collects is basically to enable households to be classified into income groups and although most of the income information obtained is on a current basis, income from investment, self-employment and some other sources relate to a previous 12-month period. As income and expenditure figures relate to different periods, the difference between expenditure and income as measured in the survey should not be regarded as savings or dis-savings.

Although the survey is primarily concerned with the expenditure of private households, much additional information is collected about the characteristics of each co-operating household. Consequently the survey provides a unique fund of important economic and social data.

Like all surveys based on a sample of the population, its results are subject to sampling error, and to some bias due to non-response. The sampling error is smallest in relation to the average expenditure of large groups of households or items purchased frequently when expenditure does not vary greatly between households. Conversely, it is largest in relation to small groups of households, and for items purchased infrequently for which expenditure varies considerably between households. However, comparison of the survey results over successive years justifies confidence in their reliability.

The results of the survey are published in an annual report, the latest being Family Expenditure Survey 1977 (HMSO February 1979) (Price £4.75 net). This includes a list of the definitions used in the survey, items on which information is collected and a brief account of the sampling and field work procedure.

[1] The estimate for each year is obtained by applying the reciprocals of death rates to the statistics of estates upon which tax was first paid or assessed or for which grants of representation were issued in the financial year ending three months later. The estimates cover about 85 per cent of all wealth held by individuals, the main omissions being: (a) certain trusts (including some life policies) which do not become liable to estate duty or capital transfer tax; and (b) many small holdings of certain assets such as National Savings Certificates, which can be transferred on death without formality. The numbers shown do not include individuals with either no wealth at all or with only the types of wealth not covered by the statistics indicated. [2] Other than deposit accounts and Building Society accounts. [3] Miscellaneous credits transferred from Other personalty to Other loans, mortgages, etc. from 1977. [4] Life assurance policies on the deceased's own life are valued in the estate duty statistics at the sum assured and bonus, if any, but to the living they are worth only the market value which is usually much less than the sum assured. [5] In Scotland, moveable estate. [6] In Scotland, heritable estate (including feudal).

[1] Information derived from the Family Expenditure Survey. [2] In 1970 and 1974 data were not collected for a few weeks at the time of the General Elections. [3] Imputed income is the weekly equivalent of the rateable value: this is adjusted to allow for general increases in rents since date of valuation, and is also included in income of households living rent-free. From 1976 the method of calculating this adjustment is changed.

[5] Excludes mortgage payments but includes imputed expenditure from owner occupancy and from rent-free occupancy. Imputed expenditure is the weekly equivalent of the rateable value which is adjusted to allow for general increase in rents since date of valuation. From 1976 the method of calculating this adjustment is changed.

Public sector

In Table 16.1 the term public sector is used to describe the combined sectors of central government, local authorities and public corporations. The table sets out the relationship between the public sector financial deficit and the public sector borrowing requirement. A financial deficit (or surplus) represents the extent to which a sector's gross savings — that is, the balance of receipts and expenditure on current transactions — plus net capital-transfers are insufficient (or more than sufficient) to finance the sector's expenditure on physical assets. In recent years the public sector has been in deficit and has needed to borrow to finance its deficit, however the size of the deficit is not an accurate indication of the public sector's total financing needs because it does not take into account the lending and other financial transactions undertaken by the public sector. To arrive at the total public sector borrowing requirement, the financial deficit (or surplus) must be added to the net increase in financial assets held by the sector. The public sector not only needs to finance its own deficit it also needs to finance its acquisition of financial assets generally; in particular, because it is a net lender to the other sectors, it must finance its own lending to others.

The details of public sector borrowing and the contributions to the public sector borrowing requirement are given in Table 16.2. A considerable part of the central government borrowing requirement is needed to finance central government lending to local authorities and public corporations. Consequently the PSBR is built up from the borrowing requirement of central government plus 'contributions' from local authorities and public corporations. The local authority contribution is equal to the local authority borrowing requirement less the direct borrowing by local authorities from central government.

Transactions in other public sector debt are netted off the local authorities' borrowing requirement. The public corporations contribution is defined in a similar way.

The local authority and public corporations borrowing requirements are in practice measured from the financing items rather than as the difference between receipts and payments because financing information comes to hand more quickly and is regarded as more reliable.

In Table 16.4 the PSBR is analysed according to the sources of the funds borrowed, it shows who owns the net issues of debt rather than who owes them. The table shows the three main ways in which the PSBR is financed: by sales of debt to the public outside the banking system (for example, gilts, national savings, local authority stocks and bonds); by borrowing from the banking system and by external transactions — that is, transactions with residents of other countries — which includes not only government borrowing but also the effect of changes in the reserves on the sterling assets of the Exchange Equalisation Account.

Definitions of the asset categories shown in Table 16.3 can be found in the second edition of the Financial Statistics Explanatory handbook (HMSO) published in April 1979.

Central government

The central government embraces all bodies for whose activities a Minister of the Crown, or other responsible person, is accountable to Parliament. It includes, in addition to the ordinary government departments, a number of bodies administering public policy but without the substantial degree of financial independence which characterises the public corporations; it also includes certain extra-budgetary funds and accounts controlled by departments.

The government's financial transactions are handled through a number of statutory funds, or accounts. The most important of these is the Consolidated Fund which is the government's main account with the Bank of England. Up to 31 March 1968 the Consolidated Fund was virtually synonymous with the term 'Exchequer' which was then the Government's central cash account. From 1 April 1968 the National Loans Fund, with a separate account at the Bank of England, was set up by the National Loans Act, 1968. The general effect of this Act was to remove from the Consolidated Fund most of the Government's domestic lending and the whole of the Government's borrowing transactions and to provide for them to be brought to account in the National Loans Fund.

Revenue from taxation and miscellaneous receipts, including interest and dividends on loans made from Votes, continue to be paid into the Consolidated Fund (Table 16.8). After meeting the ordinary expenditure on Supply Services and the Consolidated Fund Standing Services (Table 16.9), the surplus or deficit on the Consolidated Fund (Table 16.6), is payable into or met by the National Loans Fund.

Table 16.6 also provides a summary of the transactions of the National Loans Fund. The service of the National Debt, previously borne on the Consolidated Fund, is now met from the National Loans Fund which receives (a) interest payable on loans to the nationalised industries, local authorities and other bodies, whether the loans were made before or after 1 April 1968 and (b) the profits of the Issue Department of the Bank of England, mainly derived from interest on government securities, which were formerly paid into the Exchange Equalisation Account. The net cost of servicing the National Debt after applying these interest receipts and similar items is a charge on the Consolidated Fund as part of the standing services (Table 16.9).

An analysis of net lending from the National Loans Fund is provided in Table 16.10. The gross position showing issues and repayments of loans is shown in Tables 16.11 and 16.12. Details of National Loans Fund loans outstanding are shown in Table 16.14.

Details of borrowing and repayments of debt, other than loans from the National Loans Fund, are shown in Table 16.13.

Table 16.16 gives details of the nominal amount outstanding of the National Debt. The main constituents comprise marketable securities, national savings securities, floating debt and other debt payable in sterling and external currencies.

[1] An article describing these statistics was published in Economic Trends No. 283, May 1977. [2] Total foreign currency debt for each sub-sector is valued at middle closing spot exchange rates at end-March of each year. [3] Including sterling stocks of nationalised industries guaranteed by the British government. [4] Official holdings at 31 March 1978 were made up as follows: Treasury bills — £4,293 million, marketable securities — £8,616 million, ways and means advances — £5,316 million, terminable annuities — £12 million, other (longstanding) debt to the Bank of England Issue Department — £11 million. [5] Current accounts with trustee savings banks are included prior to 21 November 1976 but excluded from that date onwards. [6] Excluding notes and coin held by the Bank of England. [7] For details see Section 4 of Consolidated Fund and National Loans Fund: Supplementary Statements each year. [8] The nominal amount outstanding. The Consolidated Funds actual liability to the Post Office Superannuation Fund is to make quarterly payments partly to meet interest at 2½ per cent on the nominal debt and partly to reduce it in the form of a holding of consols. The amount of this nominal reduction therefore depends upon the price of consols at the time of payment. [9] These stocks are liabilities of public corporations but cannot be distinguished from British government securities in the sector analysis of holdings. [10] Holdings by the domestic private sector are obtained as a residual and may contain some unidentified holdings by public sector bodies. [11] Much of the foreign currency debt of local authorities and public corporations was contracted through the exchange cover scheme under which the Treasury guarantees the debt against depreciation of sterling vis-à-vis the currency in which the debt is denominated. Thus the market exchange rate valuation used overstates the liability of these authorities in recent years, but not the liability of the public sector as a whole. [12] Where data are readily available and other than guarantees of loans to the public sector. Details of these and some other central government contingent liabilities are given in Consolidated Fund and National Loans Fund Accounts: Supplementary Statements for each year. [13] Data are not readily available before 1976.

[1] In addition to its lending, the National Loans Fund meets the interest and management charges of the national debt. To the extent that these charges are not matched by interest received on its own lending and by profits of the Issue Department of the Bank of England, the Consolidated Fund meets the difference. The surplus on the Consolidated Fund is paid to the Fund, leaving the difference between that and its net lending as the Fund's financing requirement. [2] Electricity Council, North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Board and South of Scotland Electricity Board. [3] British Airways Board (BOAC and BEA prior to 1 April 1972) and British Airports Authority. [4] Loans under the Ship Credit Scheme, to housing associations and building societies, the Shipbuilding Industry Board, British Nuclear Fuels Ltd. [5] Loans to votes for US military aircraft, married quarters for armed forces and town and country planning compensation, and lending to Northern Ireland Exchequer, Royal Ordnance factories, Royal Mint, the Redundancy Fund and Property Services Agency.

[1] The married man's allowance is that for a full year. In the year of marriage the allowance depends on the date of marriage.

[2] The single person's allowance is that for a full year.

[3] The wife's earned income allowance has a maximum value of the amount shown. Where the earned income is less, the allowance is reduced to the actual amount of earned income (7/9 of earned income in years before 1973/74).

[4] The age allowance is due where the taxpayer or his wife is aged 65 or over during the tax year. It replaces the single or married allowance, provided the taxpayer's income is below the limit shown. For incomes in excess of the limit, the allowance is reduced by £2 for each additional £3 of income until the ordinary single or married allowance is reached.

[5] The child allowance depends upon the age of the child at the start of the tax year (6 April). For 1977/78 the following allowances apply in respect of the eldest child for which a claim is made: aged under 11 £196, aged 11–15 £231 and aged 16 and over £261.

Where the child's income exceeds the limits shown, the child allowance is reduced by the excess. From 1976/77 in the case of investment income of unmarried children under 18 the limit is £115. From 1977/78 special rules apply in the cases of students over 19 and children resident overseas.

[6] The family allowance deduction was a reduction in personal allowances for each child for whom a family allowance was received. Where the family allowance was payable for only part of the year, the family allowance deduction was reduced accordingly.

[7] The additional personal allowance is due to single parents claiming child allowance for a resident child (regardless of the child's income) or to a married man whose wife is totally incapacitated.

[8] The dependent relative allowance is due to a taxpayer who maintains, wholly or partially, either (a) an aged or infirm relative, or (b) his or his wife's separated, divorced or widowed mother. The relative's income must be below the limits shown in order for the full allowance to be given. The allowance is reduced by the relative's excess over the income limit.

[9] The daughter's services allowance may be claimed by an aged or infirm taxpayer who maintains a daughter (or from 1978–79, a son) upon whose services the taxpayer or his wife are dependent.

[10] The housekeeper allowance may be claimed by a widowed taxpayer who has a resident housekeeper. It may also be claimed by an unmarried person who maintains a resident relative to look after a brother or sister for whom child allowance is given.

[11] The blind person's allowance is due to a registered blind taxpayer, but it is reduced by the amount of any tax-free blindness disability pension which is receivable.

[12] From 1975/76 replaced by age allowance.

[13] From 1979/80 relief on life assurance premiums is given by deduction from the premium payable.

The unified system of taxation came into effect on 6 April 1973. The dual structure of income tax and surtax was replaced by a single graduated tax. Earned income relief and small income relief were abolished.

For 1970/71 surtax was chargeable where an individual's total income exceeded £2,500, and where total income did not exceed £2,681 surtax was reduced to an amount equal to 40% of the difference between his chargeable income and £2,500. For 1971/72 and 1972/73 surtax was chargeable where an individual's total income exceeded £3,000 and where total income did not exceed £3,500 surtax was reduced to an amount equal to 40% of the difference between his chargeable income and £3,000. Personal allowances in excess of the single allowance were allowable as a deduction from total income in computing the income chargeable to surtax. The excess was not reduced by reason of family allowance due. Earned income relief (as for income tax) and a special earnings allowance (not exceeding £2,000) were allowable against earned income only. The rates for 1972/73 did not take account of the surcharge of 10% for that year. [2] Chargeable in addition to any basic or higher rates of tax where an individual's investment income exceeds the limits shown. [3] The lower rate slice applies additionally to wife's earned income, but any increase is deducted from the slice of total income chargeable at the basic rate. |             |                                |             |                                |             |

General notes to Table 16.21

(a) Customs and excise duties

Traditionally customs revenue duties were duties on certain imported goods and excise revenue duties were duties levied upon similar home-produced products. In broad terms the customs revenue duties comprised an element (the fiscal element) equivalent to the excise duty and a customs element intended to afford protection to the home-produced product. The amount of the protective element varies according to the preference agreement negotiated.

From 1 January 1976 this definition of customs and excise revenue duties has changed somewhat. Excise duties on alcoholic drink, hydrocarbon oil, matches and mechanical lighters replaced the former fiscal elements of the customs and excise duties and are levied on home-produced and imported products alike. The protective elements are collected separately as import duties (as customs duties from 1978).

Excise duties were also introduced for tobacco (tobacco products duty) but the final transition did not occur until 1 January 1978.

Table 16.21, until 1976, shows customs and excise rates of duty, but page 396, apart from tobacco, relates purely to excise duty rates: customs duty rates are shown in the Tariff.

(b) The Commonwealth

References to the Commonwealth include all countries of the Commonwealth (excluding Rhodesia), Pakistan, Burma, the Republic of Ireland, the Republic of South Africa and territories administered by these countries or the United Kingdom. Prior to EEC entry imports of revenue dutiable goods from these countries were usually free from the protective element mentioned in (a) above.

From 1 January 1974 distinction was made between the more developed countries of the Commonwealth (Commonwealth 1) and the less developed (Commonwealth 11). Special preference agreements were negotiated with the EEC on behalf of Commonwealth 11 countries which enabled importation of revenue dutiable goods free of the protective element of the customs revenue duties. However, imports from Commonwealth 1 countries became liable to payment of the Common Customs Tariff (CCT) of the EEC by progressive stages. (See note (d).) Special arrangements with the Republic of Ireland applied until 30 June 1977 (for most goods).

(c) EFTA

References to EFTA include Austria, Denmark (including Greenland and the Faroe Islands), Finland, Iceland, Norway, Portugal (including the Azores and Madeira), Sweden, Switzerland (including Liechtenstein) and the Channel Islands. From 1 January 1974 Denmark continued to benefit from EFTA rates, subject to different origin rules. This special arrangement was superseded at the end of the transitional period (30 June 1977 for most goods) by the normal EEC arrangements for trade between member states.

(d) Entry to the EEC

On entry to the EEC, in January 1973, the United Kingdom committed itself to the following programme for abolition of the protective element of the revenue duties between the United Kingdom and the EEC and the alignment of the UK Tariff (UKT) with the CCT, the basic level of the protective elements being those in force in January 1972:

|                       | Percentagemove to nil UKTon EEC goods | Percentagemove to fullCCT on thirdcountry imports |

Customs and excise rates of duty

Spirits, beer, cider, perry, wine, oil and tobacco

- [1] See footnotes [5] and [9]. From 1 July 1973 the tariff rates were greatly expanded to reflect the breakdown in the CCT.
- [2] A proof gallon is 1 gallon at 100° proof (Sikes) or its equivalent. At 60°F, proof spirit contains 49.28 per cent of ethyl alcohol by weight and 57.1 per cent by volume.
- [3] The immaturity surcharge is levied on spirits which have been warehoused for less than three years at the time of duty payment.
- [4] A bulk barrel is 36 gallons. Beer duty is charged on home-produced beer at a stage of production prior to fermentation and a 6 per cent quantity allowance is given for subsequent wastage. Specific gravity is measured on a scale where pure water = 1000°. The duty is payable by the 25th day of the month following the month of charge.
- [5] Light wine is wine of a strength not exceeding 27° proof in the case of Commonwealth wine and 25° proof for other wine. Wine stronger than this is heavy wine.
- [6] Light wine is wine of a strength not exceeding 27° proof. Wine stronger than this is heavy wine.
- [7] All imported oil is nominally liable to duty at the basic rate but heavy oil not intended for use in road vehicles is relieved from part of this duty by means of a rebate upon delivery for home use. Also light oil used as a furnace fuel for burning in vaporised or atomised form by approved persons is liable to a rebate.
- [8] From 1 January 1974, under the CCT, an additional charge was levied on imports of spirits from full rate, EFTA and Commonwealth countries. The additions for 1974, 1975 and 1976 to 30 June 1977 respectively were:
 rum and gin — £0.4321, £0.6481 and £0.8642;
 bourbon — £0.3025, £0.4537 and £0.6049;
 vodka — £0.5617, £0.8425 and £1.234; and brandy — £0.6913, £1.037 and £1.3827.
- [9] In 1973 and 1974, full rate and EEC rum paid an additional amount of duty under the UKT: in 1973 the additions were — full rate £0.0625 and EEC £0.0375, and in 1974 they were both £0.0125.
- [10] From 1 January 1974, under the CCT, imports of beer from full rate, EFTA and Commonwealth countries became subject to an additional charge of 9.6 per cent, 4 per cent and 9.6 per cent of the value of the importation respectively. These charges represented 40 per cent of the CCT rate: further increases of 20 per cent on each rate were made on 1 January 1975, 1 January 1976 and 1 July 1977. The UK protective element contained in the specific charge was reduced simultaneously by similar percentages — see note (d) on page 395.
- [11] The 'in bottle' rate for Commonwealth, full rate and EFTA varies with the strength of the wine.
- [12] From 1 January 1974, under the CCT, full rate, EFTA and Commonwealth origin goods became liable to an additional charge calculated either as a percentage of the value of the goods or as a unit of account.
- [13] See note (a) on page 395.
- [14] All items in this column, other than hydrocarbon oil, imported tobacco and tobacco products, were subject to 10 per cent Regulator surcharge from 1 January 1977 to 29 March 1977. For imported tobacco the surcharge applied from 16 December 1976. Tobacco products were subject to 10 per cent increase from 1 January 1977 to 3 April 1977.
- [15] The duty on cider and perry of a strength less than 8.7 per cent alcohol by volume was introduced with effect from 6 September 1976. Cider and perry of a strength of 8.7 per cent or more is liable to made-wine duty.
- [16] On 1 January 1976 the old distinction between imported wine and British wine was removed. The distinction is now between wine made from fresh grapes (wine) and wine made from other than fresh grapes (made-wine). At the same time the duty rates were restructured and three basic rates were introduced for wine and three for made-wine. The duty payable depends on the strength of the wine, measured as per cent of alcohol by volume, the strength bands being: wine — not exceeding 15 per cent, over 15 and up to 18 per cent and over 18 and up to 22 per cent — and for made-wine — not exceeding 10 per cent, over 10 and up to 15 per cent and over 15 and up to 18 per cent. As an approximate comparison with the previous 'light' and 'heavy' distinction, 15 per cent (26.2° proof) is taken to be the dividing line.
- [17] From 8 August 1977 the duty on light hydrocarbon oil was reduced to £0.30 per gallon.
- [18] On 10 May 1976 the rates of duty on imported tobacco were reduced and a new tobacco products duty introduced.
- [19] On 1 January 1978 the final step was taken towards charging excise duty on tobacco products: the customs duties, other than the CCT protective elements, were abolished and the rates of excise duty on tobacco products increased.
- [20] Increased on 4 April 1977.
- [21] From 4 September 1978 cigarettes yielding 20 mg or more of tar became liable to a health surcharge of £2.25 per thousand.
- [22] Adjusted on 13 August 1979.

[1] Value added tax was introduced on 1 April 1973 and in conjunction with car tax replaced purchase tax and selective employment tax. It is, in principle, a broadly-based ad valorem tax chargeable on the supply of goods and services in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man and on the importation of goods into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man. [2] Persons making exempt supplies of goods or services do not have to charge their customers tax on these supplies, but they are not entitled to reclaim any related input tax. Exemptions are specified in Schedule 5 to the Finance Act 1972 and, generally speaking, include; the granting, etc. of any interest in or right over land; insurance; postal services; betting, gaming and lotteries; financial transactions (other than fees for professional services); educational and health supplies and burial and cremation. [3] Supplies under this heading are zero-rated, i.e. taxable, but the rate of tax is nil. Suppliers of zero-rated goods or services do not have to charge tax to their customers; but can reclaim any related input tax. Zero-rated goods and services are specified in Schedule 4 to the Finance Act 1972 and, generally speaking, include: food and drink (other than pet food, dutiable alcoholic drink and those foodstuffs at [4] and food and drink when supplied in the course of catering); water; books and newspapers; talking books for the blind; newspaper advertisements; news services; fuel and power (other than that at [5] and [6]); civil engineering and the construction of buildings (other than repairs and maintenance and services of architects, surveyors, etc.); services to overseas traders or for overseas purposes; public transport, caravans (other than those at [7]) and houseboats; gold, bank notes; drugs, medicines and appliances supplied on prescription; certain supplies by charities; young childrens clothing and footwear. [7] Items specifically excluded are cookers and heaters. [8] Schedule 5 of the Finance Act 1972 exempts the provisions of any facilities for the playing of any games of chance, but the provision of facilities for the playing of a gaming machine were excluded from the exemption with effect from 1 November 1975. [9] Certain considerations for supplies of services or goods are 'outside the scope of the tax' e.g. rates, wages and salaries. [10] It is charged on vehicles which, broadly speaking, are used on public roads for the carriage of passengers, are driven by an internal combustion engine and have three or more wheels. But certain vehicles are exempt from car tax, e.g. ambulances, prison vans and some special purpose vehicles. Inclusive of the dealers margin VAT is levied in addition to the car tax on the wholesale price inclusive of car tax. [11] Generally the value means exclusive of tax though there are exceptions to this e.g. barter transactions and business gifts.

[1] These duties apply only in Great Britain. Separate duties have been imposed by the government of Northern Ireland. [2] Other than pools competitions operated by charity or sport licensed under the Pools Competition Act 1971: these remained at 33½%. [3] Liable to General betting duty from 24 October 1966. [4] This replaced Bookmakers' Licence duty which was paid by bookmakers operating at dog race meetings at which a totalisator was operated. Before 3 August 1964 rates varied from £6 to £48 and from 3 August 1966 till it was replaced by General Betting duty, rates were £3 to £24. [5] Betting Premises Licence duty was levied from 1 October 1969 for off-course betting at the rate of 3 times the rateable value of the premises, or £150 in the case of premises with no rateable value. The duty ceased on 27 April 1970.

[1] Banks are required to maintain reserve assets amounting to at least 12½ per cent of their eligible liabilities. Full definitions of reserve ratio items, which were introduced on 16 September 1971, were contained in an article 'Reserve ratios: further definitions' in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin, December 1971. [2] As at second Wednesday in December. [3] Banks in Northern Ireland were not included in the figures for 1972. Additionally figures for interest-bearing eligible liabilities exclude banks in Northern Ireland in 1973 and 1974. [4] Eligible liabilities comprises, in broad terms, sterling deposit liabilities, excluding deposits having an original maturity of over two years, plus any sterling resources obtained by switching foreign currencies into sterling. Inter-bank transactions and transactions with the discount market (other than reserve assets) and sterling certificates of deposit (both held and issued) are taken into the calculation of individual banks' liabilities on a net basis, irrespective of term. Adjustments are also made in respect of transit items. [5] Eligible for rediscount at the Bank of England (up to a maximum of 2 per cent of eligible liabilities). [6] Certain holdings of Northern Ireland banks which qualified as reserve assets during a transitional period which ended during 1975. [7] Calls for special deposits are expressed as a uniform percentage of each bank's eligible liabilities. With effect from August 1978, for the duration of the reactivated supplementary special deposit scheme, the liability of the London and Scottish clearing banks to pay special deposits was reduced to offset the additional resources devoted by those banks to medium and long-term lending, at fixed rates, for exports and domestic ship-building. The release of special deposits totalled £207 million in August 1978. [8] Non-interest-bearing supplementary special deposits are payable according to increases in banks' interest-bearing eligible liabilities above specified rates of growth. The supplementary special deposit scheme was activated between December 1973 and February 1975, between November 1976 and August 1977, and again from June 1978. [9] The addition of National Girobank to this series in October 1978 inflated eligible liabilities by £310 million and reserve assets by £85 million.

[1] Figures are not strictly comparable throughout owing to changes in the composition of the clearings. This table includes only inter-bank clearings. [2] The 1970 figure is not comparable with earlier figures owing to mergers among the London Clearing banks. [3] Figures from 1971 are not comparable with earlier figures, owing to the exclusion of credit transfers processed by the Bankers' automated Clearing Service.

[1] The banking sector comprises all banks in the United Kingdom observing the common 12½ per cent reserve ratio, together with the National Giro bank (which observed the reserve ratio from 25 September 1978), discount market institutions, and the Bank of England Banking Department. Inter-bank items are excluded and adjustments made to allow for transit items. Figures for other currencies are affected by changes in exchange rates. [2] During 1972, the inclusion of new contributors added about 700 to total assets and liabilities, and during 1973 further new contributors added 70; during 1975 changes in statistical reporting and the number of contributors added about 400. [3] Before the introduction of new statistical returns during 1975 all UK residents' deposits in foreign currency were allocated to the private sector.

[1] This table covers all banks observing the minimum 12½ per cent reserve ratio introduced in September 1971, including the six money-trading departments which observed an undefined assets multiple. The Bank of England, Banking Department, the National Giro and other discount market institutions observing an undefined assets multiple are excluded. Detailed notes can be found in the Bank of England Statistical Abstract No. 2, page 64. A new series of banking statistics was introduced in May 1975. Because many items in the new series are incompatible with those in the old series, figures from 1975 are shown in Table 17.6 [2] As at second Wednesday in December. [3] From 1972 the statistics include figures for the five finance houses recognised or confirmed as banks in January 1972. Their inclusion added £1,046 million to sterling deposits. From 1973 a sixth such finance house and some other banks were included. Their inclusion added £240 million to sterling deposits and £62 million to currency deposits.

[1] An article describing the main features of the series of banking statistics introduced in May 1975 may be found in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin, June 1975. The table covers all banks observing the minimum 12½ per cent reserve ratio introduced on 16 September 1971; it excludes the Banking Department of the Bank of England, and the money trading departments of listed banks, together with other institutions observing an undefined assets multiple. The National Girobank is included with effect from October 1978. Detailed notes to this table can be found in the notes to Table 3 in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin. [1] The analysis of bank advances is based on the Standard Industrial Classification. Prior to 1975 the statistics relate to banks in Great Britain only; from 1975 advances by banks in Northern Ireland are included. [2] As at third Wednesday in November. [3] Charges in the series in 1972 and 1975 prevent direct comparison with earlier years. [4] Because of difficulties in classification it is not possible for 1972 to include advances made by the five finance houses recognised or confirmed as banks in January 1972. Their advances totalled £1,261 million at mid-November 1972. In May 1972 £734 million (London clearing banks £697 million, Scottish clearing banks £37 million) of fixed-rate credits and short-term export finance, previously included in Sterling bills discounted was transferred to Advances. The categories mainly affected were Electrical engineering (£72 million), Other engineering and metal goods (£212 million), Shipbuilding (£164 million), Vehicles (£118 million) and Construction (£94 million). [5] In May 1975 a new series of statistics was produced which prevents direct comparison with previous years, despite the similarity in categories. (The Total excludes advances to UK banks, all lending under special schemes for exports, and refinanced lending for domestic shipbuilding). [6] Excluding funds placed through the specialised financial markets. [7] £95 million of lending previously classified to Hire purchase finance houses was reclassified in August 1975 under Persons, other.

[1] Before 1975 this group comprised the members of the London Discount Market Association. From 1975, figures for two discount brokers and the money trading departments of certain banks carrying on an essentially similar type of business have also been included. Also in 1975 new statistical forms were introduced; from then on the definition of certain items may be slightly revised; all figures are at book value. [2] Including local authority and public sector bills. [3] Before 1975 this item is shown at nominal values. [4] Excluding capital and reserves.

[1] There were changes in the number of contributors to the banking statistics during 1972 and 1973 (see also footnote [8]). [2] The figures at end-year are affected by the introduction of new statistical returns (see also footnote [8]). [3] The estimates of levels of coin in circulation include allowance for wastage, hoarding, etc. [4] Deposits are confined to those with institutions included in the United Kingdom banking sector (see Table 17.5). [5] After deducting 60 per cent of transit items. [6] Including UK residents' holdings of certificates of deposit. [7] The figures include changes in the sterling value of the deposits caused by changes in exchange rates. [8] As far as possible the changes exclude the effect of changes in the number of contributors to the series, and also of the introduction of new statistical returns in 1975.

[1] Until 1 October 1971, the clearing banks' minimum rate of interest charged for loans to the discount market, usually a fixed margin above their deposit rate. From 1 October 1971 fixed rates have been discontinued and rates have fluctuated from day to day according to demand; the range of rates charged on the last Friday of each month is shown in Financial Statistics. [2] Between 13 October 1972 and 24 May 1978 the Bank of England's minimum lending rate to the market was normally one half per cent higher than the average rate of discount for Treasury bills established at the most recent tender, rounded to the nearest one quarter per cent above, the rate normally becoming effective, for lending by the Bank, from the following working day. On 25 May 1978 it was announced that the rate would in future be determined by administrative decision and any change would normally be announced at 12.30 pm on a Thursday; the new rate would become effective immediately. [3] Each clearing bank has a single "base rate", which may sometimes differ from those of other banks. Rates charged on advances and rates paid on deposits are linked to these base rates. The rate charged on advances will depend on the nature and status of the customer, but most lending is now at rates between base rate +1 per cent and base rate +5 per cent. Before October 1971 the rate paid on ordinary deposit accounts was 2 per cent below bank rate. From then until September 1973 it was generally 1½ per cent below base rate. Between 11 September 1973 and 28 February 1975 the banks were not allowed to pay more than 9½ per cent on deposits under £10,000. Since February 1975 the margin between base rate and that on deposit accounts has fluctuated between 2 and 4½ per cent.

[4] Weighted averages of discount rates at the weekly allotments of 91 day bills. [5] The mean of the discount market's buying rates. Averages of working days. [6] From January 1971 figures are averages of working days, before 1971 figures are for last working day. [7] The mean of the daily range for three-month deposits in the inter-bank sterling market. The yield on a three-month sterling certificate of deposit is usually close to that for a three-months' inter-bank deposit. [8] For a minimum term of three months and thereafter at seven days' notice. The mean of the daily range.

[1] Gross redemption yields derived from yield-maturity curves fitted mathematically. The figures are averages of Wednesday yields. The original method of calculation was described in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin, March 1967. Subsequent modifications to the method are described in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin, December 1972, September 1973 and June 1976. [2] Averages of working days, based on the mean of the middle opening and middle closing prices each day, excluding gross accrued interest; tax is ignored. [3] The series are arithmetic averages of daily figures from the F.T.—Actuaries Share Indices. Price indices (using weighted arithmetic averages) are based on 10 April 1962 = 100. [4] Based on 15 redeemable debentures, weighted to give average term to maturity of 20 years. The yields used are redemption yields. [5] Based on 500 shares.

[1] The estimates relate to new money raised by issues of ordinary, preference and loan capital (public issues, offers for sale, issues by tender, placings, and issues to shareholders and employees) by listed public companies and local authorities in the United Kingdom; and by overseas public companies and public authorities. Overseas public authorities include local authorities and international organisations. The estimates include UK local authority negotiable bonds (of not less than one year) issues to or through the agency of banks, discount houses, issuing houses or brokers. Mortgages, bank advances and any other loans redeemable in less than twelve months are excluded; so also are loans from UK government funds (including the former Industrial Reorganisation Corporation and the National Enterprise Board) but not government subscriptions to company issues made pari passu with the market. Issues to shareholders are included only if the sole or principal share register is maintained in the United Kingdom. Estimates of issues are based on the prices at which securities are offered to the market. Subscriptions are recorded under the periods in which they are due to be paid. Redemptions relate to fixed interest securities of the kinds included as issues; conversion issues in lieu of cash repayment are included in the gross figures of both issues and redemptions. These figures include issues of debentures and loan stock carrying the right of conversion into, or subscription to, equity capital. Estimates for these issues less redemptions are: 1968 104.6; 1969 267.7; 1970 105.0; 1971 63.5; 1972 101.5; 1973 34.3; 1974 1.7; 1975 84.0; 1976 10.1; 1977 -4.8; 1978 -20.5.

The division between United Kingdom and overseas company borrowers is determined by the location of the registered office. On 1 April 1974 water, dock and harbour boards were reclassified as public corporations rather than local authorities. Special finance agencies are listed public companies engaged in the provision of medium and long-term finance to industry (e.g. ICFC). The industrial classification of companies is according to the primary occupation of the borrowing company or group and is based on the Standard Industrial Classification 1968.

The figures for total issues and redemptions exclude international issues (usually made on more than one market and through an international syndicate). Rough estimates of the amounts of such issues for which UK sponsors arranged subscriptions are: 1968 298.5; 1969 208.5; 1970 172.6; 1971 252.9; 1972 397.1; 1973 273.1; 1974 112.0; 1975 683.1; 1976 2,260.0; 1977 4,012.6; 1978 3,179.7.

[1] Up to and including 1962, figures for each 'year' relate to companies' accounts for that year deposited with the Board of Trade up to 31 December of the following year. For 1963 the figures relate to companies' accounting years ended on or after 31 December 1963 and on or before 31 August 1964. From 1964 onwards, the 'year' is, for each company included, its accounting year which ended between 1 September of the year shown and 31 August of the following year. These differences have no appreciable effect on the comparability of the figures in successive years. [2] The Insurance Companies (Accounts and Forms) Regulations, 1968, substantially altered the reporting requirements, and much overseas business previously included was excluded from 1969 onwards. Figures for 1969 are not comparable with those for earlier years; Table 17.42 shows figures from 1969. [1] Figures for 1969 are not comparable with those for earlier years because the Insurance Companies (Accounts and Forms) Regulations, 1968, substantially altered the reporting requirements, and much overseas business previously included was excluded from 1969 onwards. Figures in this table cover all long-term business, other than industrial business, i.e. they include capital redemption, etc. business, previously shown separately in Table 17.49 and long-term personal accident business, previously included under accident insurance business in Table 17.49. [2] Excluding insurers (mainly mutual insurers) which are exempt from submitting fully detailed accounts under Section 92 of the Companies Act, 1967. [3] For 1969-74 includes insurers with accounting periods ending 1 September to 31 August e.g. 1969 = 1 September 1969 to 31 August 1970. 1975 and 1976 include all insurers with accounting periods ending during calendar year. [4] Includes transfers from investment reserves and revaluations of investments which were exceptionally large in 1975. [5] Includes transfers to investment reserves, which were exceptionally large in 1974. [6] A full account of the income and expenditure of overseas insurers for 1974 onwards, consistent with the figures for earlier years, cannot be obtained due to a change in the reporting requirements. The only item for which consistent figures are available is UK premium income.

[1] See footnote to Table 17.41 on page 442. [2] Excluding insurers (mainly mutual insurers) which are exempt from submitting fully detailed accounts under Section 92 of the Companies Act, 1967. [3] Figures for 1969 and later years are not comparable with those for earlier years. The Insurance Companies (Accounts and Forms) Regulations 1968, substantially altered the reporting requirements, and much overseas business previously included was excluded from 1969 onwards. From 1969, figures in this table cover all long-term business, other than industrial business, i.e. they include capital redemption, etc., business, previously shown separately in Table 17.49, and long-term personal accident, previously included under accident insurance business in Table 17.49. [4] From 1969 onwards including deferred and immediate annuity business effected during the year.

[1] See footnote [1] to Table 17.41 on page 442. [2] The figures for each year show the total number and amount of the policies in force at the date of the last valuation of each company, which may have been at any time within the preceding five years. In the case of policies with profits the 'sum assured' includes reversionary bonuses in force at the date of valuation but excludes any further bonuses allotted as a result of that valuation. [3] Excluding insurers (mainly mutual insurers) which are exempt from submitting fully detailed accounts under Section 92 of the Companies Act, 1967. [4] Figures for 1969 and later years are not comparable with those for earlier years. The Insurance Companies (Accounts and Forms) Regulations, 1968, substantially altered the reporting requirements, and much overseas business previously included was excluded from 1969 onwards.

[1] Up to and including 1962, figures for each year relate to companies' accounts for that year deposited with the Board of Trade up to 31 December of the following year. For 1963, the figures relate to the companies' accounting years ended on or after 31 December, 1963, and, on or before 31 August, 1964. From 1964 onwards, the year is for each company included, its accounting year which ended between September of the year shown and 31 August of the following year. These differences have no appreciable effect on the comparability of the figures in successive years. [2] In 1969 changes were made in the classification of the different categories of business and much overseas business previously included was excluded. Figures for 1969 are not comparable with those for earlier years, Table 17.50 shows figures from 1969 to 1974. [3] Excluding insurers (mainly mutual insurers) which are exempt from submitting fully detailed accounts under Section 92 of the Companies Act, 1967. [4] Including transfers to or from profit and loss account. [5] The figure for 1961 includes adjustments due to the regrouping of companies. [6] Including medical and legal expenses.

[1] The 'year' is, for each company included, its accounting year which ended between 1 September of the year shown and 31 August of the following year. [2] In 1969 changes were made in the classification of the different categories of business and much overseas business previously included was excluded. Figures for 1969 are not comparable with those for earlier years and therefore this table showing figures for 1969 and later years was introduced. The classes of business distinguished are those set out in Part III of Schedule 2 of The Insurance Companies (Accounts and Forms) Regulations 1968. [3] Excluding insurers (mainly mutual insurers) which are exempt from submitting fully detailed accounts under Section 92 of the Companies Act, 1967. [4] Interest, etc. is shown before tax. [5] Including transfers from profit and loss account. [6] Including taxation and transfers to profit and loss account. [7] Relates to companies presenting three-year revenue statements. [8] Not dealt with in earlier categories.

[1] The figures are derived from the accounts of listed companies engaged mainly in the United Kingdom in manufacturing, distribution, construction and certain miscellaneous services. They exclude companies whose main interests are in agriculture, shipping, insurance, banking, finance and property and those operating wholly or mainly overseas. [2] The figures for 1970 (with comparable figures for 1969) to 1974 are confined to listed companies with net assets of £2.0 million or more or gross income of £0.2 million or more in 1968. The figures for 1975 (with comparable figures for 1974) are confined to listed companies with net assets of £5.0 million or more or gross income of £0.5 million or more in 1973. [3] The 'year' is, for each company included, its accounting year which ended between 6 April of the year shown and 5 April of the following year. About a third of the 975 companies analysed for 1977 had accounting years ending in December 1977 and another third had accounting years ending in 1978, up to and including 5 April 1978. [4] So far as recorded separately. [5] From 1969 to 1972 dividends are recorded gross of income tax and Advanced Corporation tax. From 1973 they are recorded as net of tax. Under the 1972 Finance Act a company was required to pay Advanced Corporation tax on dividends paid after 5 April 1973; income tax is no longer payable on these distributions. Any Advance Corporation tax payable on dividends declared in 1972, but not paid until after 5 April 1973 has been included with dividends in the figures for 1972, and excluded from the current tax charge. [6] All corporation tax is classified as a current liability irrespective of the date on which it is payable. From 1973 all amounts of Advance Corporation tax to be set against future corporation tax payments have been deducted from current taxation. [7] Immediate assets are current assets (including investments) less stocks and work in progress.

XVIII. Prices

Index of retail prices (Table 18.1)

The retail prices index measures the change from month to month in the average level of prices of goods and services purchased by most households in the United Kingdom. The expenditure pattern on which the index is based is revised each year using information from the Family Expenditure Survey. The expenditure of certain higher income households and households of retired people dependent mainly on social security benefits is excluded.

The index covers a large and representative selection of nearly 350 separate goods and services, for which price movements are regularly measured in more than 200 towns throughout the country. Approximately 150,000 separate price quotations are used in compiling the index.

Index numbers of agricultural prices (Tables 18.6 and 18.7)

New indices of agricultural prices for the United Kingdom based on the calendar year 1975 are designed to provide short-term indications of movements in the purchase prices of the means of agricultural production and of prices received by producers for their agricultural products. Details of the methodology giving particulars of weights and of items included appear in Economic Trends No. 312, October 1979 (HMSO). The construction of the indices enables them to be combined with similar indices for other member countries of the European Economic Community, to provide an overall indication of price trends within the Nine, which appear in the Community's Eurostat Series of publications.

These indices replace earlier series (now discontinued) based on 1968/69–1971/72 which appeared in the Annual Abstract 1979 Edition, and the interim series based on 1970 which appeared in the Monthly Digest of Statistics during 1979.

[1] The index of retail prices replaced the interim index from January 1956 (Indices of the interim index of retail prices for the period 1952 to January 1956 were last published in Annual Abstract of Statistics No. 103, 1965). A new set of weights was introduced, based on ascertained expenditure in 1953-54, valued at January 1956 prices. Between January 1962 and 1974 the weights have been revised each January on the basis of ascertained expenditure in the three years ended in the previous June, valued at prices obtaining at the date of revision. From 1975 the weights have been revised on expenditure for the latest available year.

STANDARD INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION

The Standard Industrial Classification has been prepared as a means of securing uniformity and comparability in the statistics published by Government Departments in the United Kingdom. It is a system of classification of establishments according to industry; it does not relate to commodities or occupations for which other systems of classification have been devised. It has been compiled to conform with the organisation and structure of industry as it exists within the United Kingdom.

The 1958 Classification was replaced by a revised edition published in October 1968.

The 1958 Classification provided 152 Minimum List Headings grouped into 24 Orders; in the 1968 revision this has been expanded to 181 Minimum List Headings grouped into 27 Orders, to allow for the increased importance of certain industries. Lists of the Orders and Minimum List Headings for both the 1958 and 1968 editions of the Classification are given below. It should be noted that activities covered by Headings in both lists may not exactly correspond although the titles are unchanged.

Full details of the 1968 Classification are available in Standard Industrial Classification (revised 1968) and Standard Industrial Classification—Alphabetical List of Industries (revised 1968) (Second Impression 1974) (HMSO)
